Little Ree is a book about Ree Drummond's childhood move to the country. She is excited about her move into her grandparents' house before experiencing some anxiety about her differences. Eventually she adjusts and is happy about her new home. I have watched Pioneer Woman and I can hear Ree telling this story.

The story takes an interesting turn when Little Ree and Hyacinth decide to enter the county fair pie baking contest, and they decide the only way to win is to go out and hunt for fresh berries. As you can imagine, it's an adventure. (By the way, it's skunk mating season on the ranch right now, so this illustration couldn't be more timely.)
