It is eleven years since seven-year-old Melissa Dickinson dialed the hospital help line for comfort—and found it in therapy with Alex Delaware. Now the lovely young heiress is desperately calling for the psychologist ' s help once more. Only this time it looks like Melissa ' s deepest childhood nightmare is really coming true. " A page-turner from beginning to end. " —Los Angeles Times Twenty years ago, Gina Dickinson, Melissa ' s mother, suffered a grisly assault that left the budding actress irreparably scarred and emotionally crippled. Now her acid-wielding assailant is out of prison and back in L.A.—and Melissa is terrified that the monster has returned to hurt Gina again. But before Alex Delaware can even begin to soothe his former patient ' s fears, Gina, a recluse for twenty years, disappears. And now, unless Delaware turns crack detective to uncover the truth, Gina Dickinson will be just one more victim of a cold fury that has already spawned madness . . . and murder.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • Psychologist Alex Delaware and detective Milo Sturgis search for answers to a brutal, decades-old crime in this electrifying psychological thriller from the master of suspense. LAPD homicide lieutenant Milo Sturgis is a master detective. He has a near-perfect solve rate and he ' s written his own rule book. Some of those successes—the toughest ones—have involved his best friend, the brilliant psychologist Alex Delaware. But Milo doesn ' t call Alex in unless cases are " different. " This murder warrants an immediate call. Milo ' s independence has been compromised as never before, as the department pressures him to cater to the demands of a mogul: a hard-to-fathom, megarich young woman who is obsessed with reopening the coldest of cases—the decades-old death of the mother she never knew. The facts describe a likely loser: a mysterious woman found with a bullet in her head in a torched Cadillac that has overturned on infamously treacherous Mulholland Drive. No physical evidence, no witnesses, no apparent motive. And a slew of detectives have already worked the case and failed. But as Delaware and Sturgis begin digging, the mist begins to lift. Too many coincidences. Facts turn out to be anything but. And as they soon discover, very real threats lurking in the present. This is Delaware/Sturgis at their best: traversing the beautiful but forbidding place known as Los Angeles and exhuming the past in order to bring a vicious killer to justice.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Professor Hope Devane ' s male-bashing pop-psych bestseller created a storm of controversy on the talk-show circuit. Now she is dead, brutally slashed on a quiet street in one of L.A. ' s safest neighborhoods. The LAPD ' s investigation has gone cold, and homicide detective Milo Sturgis turns to his friend Dr. Alex Delaware for a psychological profile of the victim—and a portrait of a killer. " Engrossing . . . mines new realms of psychological terror . . . holds the reader riveted. " —Playboy Hope Devane had very different public and private faces. The killer could be any one of the millions who read her book, or someone from the personal life she kept so carefully separate. As Alex and Milo dig deeper into her shadowy past, they will set an elaborate trap for her killer . . . and reveal the unspeakable act that triggered a dark chain of violence.

Embroiled in a vicious child custody case where the plaintiff is murdered and the girl at the center of the case is kidnapped, psychologist Alex Delaware, with the assistance of his friend, Detective Milo Sturgis, races to save the child.

Includes excerpt from Guilt (p. [477]-487).

"An affluent family returns home from Sunday dinner only to find the murdered and brutalized corpse of a total stranger in their house. This baffling, twisted tale tests Alex and Milo to their intellectual and emotional limits"--

BONUS: This edition contains an excerpt from Jonathan Kellerman's Victims. When it comes to writing deftly layered, tightly coiled novels of suspense, #1 New York Times bestselling author Jonathan Kellerman reigns supreme as " master of the psychological thriller " (People). Kellerman has worked his magic again in this chilling masterpiece. The anonymous caller has an ominous tone and an unnerving message about something " real dead . . . buried in your marsh. " The eco-volunteer on the other end of the phone thinks it ' s a prank, but when a young woman ' s body turns up in L.A. ' s Bird Marsh preserve no one ' s laughing. And when the bones of more victims surface, homicide detective Milo Sturgis realizes the city ' s under siege to an insidious killer. Milo ' s first move: calling in psychologist Alex Delaware. The murdered women are prostitutes—except the most recent victim: a brilliant young musician from the East Coast, employed by a wealthy family to tutor a musical prodigy. Selena Bass seems out of place in the marsh ' s grim tableau. Conveniently—perhaps ominously—Selena ' s blueblood employers are nowhere to be found, and their estate ' s jittery caretaker raises hackles. But Milo ' s instincts and Alex ' s insight are too well-honed to settle for easy answers, even given the dark secrets in this troubled man ' s past. Their investigation unearths disturbing layers—about victims, potential victims, and suspects alike—plunging even deeper into the murky marsh ' s enigmatic depths. Bizarre details of the crimes suggest a devilish serial killer prowling L.A. ' s gritty streets. But when a new murder deviates from the pattern, derailing a possible profile, Alex and Milo must look beyond the suspicion of madness and consider an even more sinister mind at work. Answers don ' t come easy, but the darkest of drives and desires may fuel the most devious of foes. Bones is classic Kellerman—relentlessly peeling back the skin and psyches of its characters and revealing the shadows and sins of the souls beneath. With jolt after jolt of galvanizing suspense, it drives the reader through its twists and turns toward a climax as satisfying as it is shattering.
